- 4.3 The pursuit of the Purposes qualifies the Foundation as a non-profit commercial entity, an innovative socio-economic model called Reintegration Economy .

- 4.4 If in the future the protection of the biosphere and biodiversity were to be achieved, the Foundation, having no time limits, would continue to practice the Reintegration Economy by acquiring a new purpose of general interest.

- 4.5 The Foundation undertakes the initiatives necessary to pursue the Purposes alone or by collaborating with natural persons, public administrations, companies, institutes, universities, academies and organizations of any nature, national and international.
- 4.6 The Foundation is not a simple funder, it plays an active role in pursuing the Objectives.

- 4.8 The Foundation exercises the social rights to which it is entitled in the companies and entities in which it has a stake in coherence with its aims and values and ensures that management takes place:
- (a) in an ethical manner, in compliance with current regulations, without resorting to evasive practices, with moral integrity and material honesty of the top management;

5. HERITAGE

- 5.1 Second golden rule: any distribution, even indirect, of the Endowment Fund, the Management Fund, as well as profits or management surpluses is expressly prohibited.
- 5.2 The Endowment Fund is made up of:

- (a) from the initial attributions of the Founders;
- (b) from further patrimonial attributions not expressly destined to the Management Fund, also by way of inheritance or legacy, by the Founders, net of the relevant taxes;

6.1 It is not an organ of the Foundation, but rather a friendly organization.

6.2 By 'People of the Capellino Foundation' (the “ People ”) we mean natural persons of high moral and intellectual standing who over time have demonstrated proven sharing of the values of the Foundation. Such individuals, after verification of the statutory requirements, become part of the People of the Foundation by transcription in the appropriate book. Anyone who has been a member of a body until the end of the mandate, unless he wishes otherwise, is registered ex officio.

6.3 The number of members cannot exceed 50, plus those who are registered ex officio. Those who have been registered for at least 3 years and have not previously been members of a body of the Foundation, can be co-opted by the Assembly among its members.

6.4 The Foundation asks the People to be ambassadors of its Purposes and its projects.

6.5 The People meet once a year, in the presence of the Board and the delegated members of the Assembly and the Committee, in the hours preceding the meeting for the approval of the budget, at the headquarters of the Foundation or elsewhere, to be informed about the progress of the Foundation and to debate freely and non-bindingly with the Bodies. It draws up minutes, which the Board takes care of transcribing in the Book of the People. At least 7 days before its meeting, it receives a report made separately by each of the 3 bodies.

7. BODIES OF THE FOUNDATION

- 7.1 Third golden rule : all the bodies of the Foundation (the “ Bodies ”) and the members that compose them, as well as the People and the persons designated to represent the Foundation in the companies or entities in which it participates, must cooperate with each other in compliance with their mutual attributions, on an informed basis, in an efficient and functional manner to the pursuit of the Purposes, with simple, timely and linear methods. Any conflict must be avoided by reading the Statute and the indications provided by the golden rules.
- 7.2 The Foundation's bodies are: the President (the “ President ”), the Purposes Assembly (the “ Assembly ”), the Board of Directors (the “ Board ”) and the Supervisory Committee (the “ Committee ”).

 - (d) be culturally similar and motivated and in any case never in conflict with the Purposes;
 - (e) not to participate in democratic regimes in associations, bodies or organizations that are secret or that conflict with the provisions of Article 18, paragraph 2 of the Constitution, or that, even within overt groups, by concealing their existence, keep secret purposes and activities other than the official ones, hiding the identity of their followers;
 - (f) not hold positions in organizations competing with the companies or entities in which the Foundation has a stake.
- 7.4 A member of a Body cannot simultaneously be a member of other Bodies, with the exception of the President of the Foundation, who is simultaneously President of the Council and the Assembly, and the Founders who are members of the Assembly and the Council for life in addition to the number of members provided for by the statute. The Founders who are natural persons, in order of seniority, are entitled to the Presidency of the Council and the Assembly without time limits until resignation.
- 7.5 The Foundation must be represented on the Boards of Directors and in the supervisory bodies of the companies or entities in which it has a stake by members designated by the Board in compliance with the statutory requirements.
- 7.6 No member of the bodies and companies or entities participated in, even indirectly, among those expressed by the Foundation, may be a member of the Administrative and Control bodies, or an employee of competing companies, or be linked to one or more of these members by a relationship of marriage, civil union, kinship or affinity up to the fourth degree and/or participate in organizations/companies with values incompatible with the Purposes.

- 7.7 The members of the Bodies, as well as the persons designated to represent the Foundation, may be members or participate in other organizations with or without profit, with the limitations indicated in the Statute.
- 7.8 The members of the Committee, in addition to having the statutory requirements required for all Bodies:
- (a) they cannot be chosen from among those who have held a position in the Foundation;

- 7.9 The loss, after the appointment, of the statutory requirements, or the adoption of measures to protect the person with limitations on the capacity to act (interdiction, disqualification, appointment of a support administrator) constitute grounds for immediate and automatic removal from office.
- 7.10 Failure to attend, in a period of 12 calendar months, two meetings of the Body to which one belongs, or of another Body whose meetings are required by this Statute to attend, shall also constitute grounds for immediate and automatic dismissal from office, except in cases of force majeure.
- 7.11 The Bodies mutually supervise, preliminarily and subsequently for the entire duration of the term of office, compliance with the statutory requirements, as well as compliance with the tasks assigned to the Bodies and their members, to the People and to those designated to represent the Foundation in the companies or entities in which it participates, in the following ways:
- (a) the Assembly supervises the Council, its members, and indirectly, through the Council, those appointed to the Boards of Directors of the participating companies or entities;

- 7.13 Each member is required to immediately notify the Organ to which he or she belongs and the Supervisory Organ of the occurrence of a situation indicated as a cause for dismissal, which, having ascertained the cause of dismissal within 7 days, requests the President to proceed with immediate removal. In the event that the member does not inform of existing causes for dismissal, the Organ to which the member belongs shall notify the Organ responsible for supervision. Failing this, the Organ responsible for supervision shall act ex officio and, having ascertained the cause of dismissal within 7 days, requests the President to proceed with immediate removal.
- 7.14 In serious and objective cases of failure to comply with the Statute, as well as in cases of serious and objective inefficiency on the part of a member of a Body, it is up to the Body to which the member belongs, after having decided by a majority of its members, to notify the Body responsible for supervision. The latter, after an investigation to be concluded within 30 days, decides on the dismissal and, if the conditions are met, requests the President to implement it immediately.

- 7.15 In serious and objective cases of failure to comply with the Statute, as well as in cases of serious and objective inefficiency on the part of an entire Body, it is up to the other two Bodies combined, following an investigation to be concluded within 30 days, to decide on the dismissal and, if the conditions exist, to ask the President to implement it immediately.
- 7.16 The Bodies draw up minutes after each meeting and immediately transcribe them in the appropriate Book. Furthermore, they record and store opinions and reports.

- (a) monitors the consistency between activities carried out and Purposes;
 - (b) measures the results achieved and expresses an opinion;
 - (c) supervises the other Bodies as provided for by the Statute.
- 8.2 The Assembly is composed of 7 members (in addition to the Founders and the President, members by right) co-opted from the People's list among those who have been registered for at least 3 years and, if in default, among those indicated by the Founders.
- 8.3 The Founders appoint the first 7 members and establish the term of office of each.
- 8.4 With the exception of the Founders and the first 7 members appointed by them, the members of the Assembly remain in office for 7 years from the time of co-option and are not eligible for re-election, unless they remain in office for less than 3 complete financial years. Once their term of office has expired, they cease to hold office immediately after the approval of the budget for the last year of the financial year, with the simultaneous appointment of the successor co-opted by the Assembly pursuant to 8.2.
- 8.5 If a member ceases to hold office before the natural expiration, the Assembly shall provide for his/her replacement within 30 days, co-opting a member from among those who have been registered for at least 3 years in the People's list. The incoming member shall be assigned the term of office of the replaced member, except for allowing re-election if he/she has remained in office for less than 3 complete financial years.
- 8.6 If four or more members of the Assembly cease to hold office at the same time, the co-optation of new members shall be carried out within 30 days by drawing lots from the names registered for at least 3 years in the People's list. The members thus co-opted shall be assigned terms of office that respect the original term of the replaced member, except for allowing re-election if they have remained in office for less than 3 complete financial years. The drawing shall be carried out by the President of the Notarial District in which the Foundation is based.
- 8.7 The President of the Assembly is the President of the Council pro-tempore. He organizes meetings and works also receiving the requests of the members, answers the questions, ensures the good functioning, has no right to vote except for the time in which President is a Founder.
- 8.8 The President, if unable to attend, may delegate, without the right to vote and for a short and fixed period of time, a member of the Board to act as President of the Assembly. In the event of absence without an official delegation, his functions are performed by the youngest member of the Board.
- 8.9 The Assembly appoints the board of directors, renews them by choosing between reconfirmation or rotation in a maximum number of one for each financial year, except in the cases of forfeiture provided for by the statute.

- 8.10 The Assembly determines each year the overall compensation for the entire Board, taking into account as parameters the compensation received by the governing bodies of other non-profit commercial entities in the world and considering the waiver in favor of the Foundation of the compensation due to the members of the board designated in the Boards of Directors of the companies or entities in which it participates.
- 8.11 The Assembly appoints the auditing firm, determining its compensation and the duration of the assignment;
- 8.12 The Assembly approves/rejects the budget (and its revisions) and the financial statement, after having acquired the written and non-binding opinion of the Committee and the auditing firm.
- 8.13 The Assembly annually designates, on the occasion of the Assembly for the approval of the budget, two of its members to participate, without the right to vote, together with a member designated by the Committee, in the monthly Board of Directors (the " Statutory Boards ") on the last working day of each month, with the exception of August and December, as well as in any extraordinary meetings, contributing to the drafting of the minutes of the meeting.
- 8.14 The Assembly, upon request of the President, shall make the Practice Regulation written and amend it, in compliance with the majorities required pursuant to 14.1.
- 8.15 The Assembly approves the amendments to this Statute in compliance with the required majorities and with the provisions of 15.2.
- 8.16 The Assembly decides by majority of its members (in case of a tie, the vote of the youngest participant counts double). The President does not vote and is not counted in determining the quorum , except for meetings chaired by a Founder.
- 8.17 Reinforced majorities are required in the following cases:
- (a) with regard to the supervision referred to in 7.15, the Assembly decides in addition to the other Body with a unanimous vote of the members minus two;
 - (b) regarding 8.14, the Assembly deliberates unanimously minus two of its members;
 - (c) regarding 8.15 the Assembly deliberates unanimously.

 - (b) on the basis of a work schedule drawn up by the President after consultation with each member, to decide on his competences, or when one of its members requests it from the President. In all cases, the applicant must attach the agenda he intends to discuss at least 7 calendar days in advance, except for reasons of force majeure.

The Assembly may also be held by videoconference or by using other means of telecommunication, provided that:

- (a) the identity of the participants can be ascertained at any time;

Subsequently, they expire or are renewed for another 3 cycles, with a maximum of one member for each financial year, upon approval of the budget. They can be re-elected without a limit on the number of mandates. If one or more members are no longer in office, the Assembly shall appoint a new member within 7 days. The new members are assigned mandate terms that respect the original expiry of the replaced member, except to allow re-election upon expiry.

9.3 Each Founder who is a natural person is a member of the Assembly and the Council for life, also in addition to the number of members provided for by the statute. The Founders who are natural persons, in order of seniority, are entitled to the Presidency of the Council and the Assembly without time limits until resignation. In the event of resignation from the office of President of both Founders, the Council, also with the vote of the Founders, elects within 7 days a new President, who remains in office until the assembly confirms him as a councilor.

9.5 The President provides for the distribution of powers and delegations among the councilors, as well as the compensation assigned by the Assembly. - 9.11 The members of the Board who hold positions in other companies or in participating entities, waive their emoluments in favor of the Foundation, except in cases where this is not appropriate or possible. The Assembly, in determining the emolument of the Board, is required to consider these waivers.

- 9.14 In case of disagreement regarding the joint action, decisions are taken by the favorable vote of the majority of the councilors present. In case of a tie, the vote expressed by the President counts double.
- 9.15 The President or his deputy may decide to have the Secretary General participate in the work of the Council, without the latter having the right to vote, and may also invite from time to time anyone who is useful to the agenda of the work .

After verifying the statutory requirements, the Committee (including the outgoing member) draws from the 3 names the new member of the Body.
- 11.6 In the event that, for any reason, one or more members should leave office before the expiration date, the President of the Foundation shall provide for the replacement, alternating with the same methods as in 11.5. The new member(s) shall be assigned the terms of office of the replaced member, except for allowing re-election if in office for less than 3 complete financial years.
- 11.7 The Committee operates in a solidarity manner. It elects a president who remains in office, unless there are statutory reasons for revocation, until the end of the mandate as a member of the Committee. It delegates one of its members to participate in the Statutory Councils. In the event of disagreement regarding operating in solidarity, decisions are taken with the favorable vote of the majority of members present.
